

RESORT OVERVIEW

Delightfully remote, only a 25-minute boat ride or ground transfer from the centre of Ho Chi Minh city, or a 30-minute ride by car from Tan Son Nhat International Airport, here is one of the few remaining places near Saigon where one can escape from the urban jungle into abundant unexplored nature at its best. Tucked off the shores of Saigon River, the retreat transports guests to a haven-like hideaway replete with lush gardens, aromatic flowers, and a tranquil river.

Comprising 38 spacious villas and suites, An Lam Retreats Saigon River is exquisitely designed to exude contemporary comfort while embracing Vietnamese heritage. The eco-architecture combining modern technology with locally sourced natural materials -Thanh Hóa granite stone, Bat Trang ceramic mosaic, and hand-made rattan furniture--creates a true feeling of a luxury lifestyle resort built around nature. Offering choices of one and two-bedroom configurations along with the riverfront or with a garden view, An Lam Retreats Saigon River is an ideal hideaway for couples, families, and friends.

At An Lam Retreats Saigon River, we encourage our guests to make the most of their stays by contributing to the sustained growth of the environment and the local society. Here, everything has been designed with sustainability in mind, from building and restaurants (where most of the ingredients used are home-grown or locally sourced) to diverse initiatives conducted by the resort to protect the surrounding nature (focusing on efficient energy consumption, water usage, waste management, no plastic policy, natural protection, and social commitment). The resort manages its crystal water refinery, producing high-quality drinking water without plastic bottles. An organic vegetable garden also supports the ultimate aim of self-sustained food and beverages, drastically reducing the environmental footprint. Wherever possible, the packaging is kept to an absolute minimum or is reusable.

The surrounding area offers the perfect environment for cultural experiences, with the grandeur view of its natural landscapes and its slow pace of life. Dotted around the resort are a number of art and handicraft villages where you can discover the beauty of Vietnamese traditional craftsmanship. Go a little bit further into the city centre to indulge in the vibrance of city life, or join us on a historical tour to learn about warfare history. The resort also has a lot to offer its customers, from a morning Yoga by the river, Vietnamese cooking class, to weekly workshops. All the guests need to do is tell us about their fantasies for a once-in-a-lifetime adventure; our dream makers can tailor each experience to surpass your wildest expectations.

An Lam Retreats Saigon River put a strong emphasis on developing people. All the staff is called "stars" to show appreciation towards their hard work and play a role as a source of motivation. The brand values are also defined by its attentive care for the guests--offering a private butler "An" who takes care of every guest's need.
